Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's request for reconsideration of the finality of the rejection of the last Office action is persuasive and, therefore, the finality of that action is withdrawn.
2. Claims 15 and 18-23 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over WO (01/05906) is withdrawn in view of applicant's arguments.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
 2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
 3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
 4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.
6. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).
7. Claims 15 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Wenderoth et al (2004/0029754).
8. Wenderoth et al disclose an aqueous coolant composition comprising mixtures of mono and di carboxylic acids (0027) in concentrations 10% or less and further comprising corrosion inhibitors such as triazoles, silicates, long chain dicarboxylic acids, molybdates, polyacrylates and borates (0032). Further, said compositions comprise 80-98% by weight of water (0033) and small amounts of alcohols. Examples include specific ingredients such as benzotriazole, toluotriazole, 4-hydroxybenzoic acid, 2-ethylhexanoic acid, adipic and sebacic acids, sodium metasilicate, and sodium silicophosphonate (0036 and examples A1-A8).
9. As this reference teaches all of the instantly required it is considered anticipatory.

In the alternative that the above disclosure is insufficient to anticipate the above listed claims, it would have nonetheless been obvious to the skilled artisan to produce the claimed composition, as the reference teaches each of the claimed ingredients within the claimed proportions for the same utility.

10. Claims 19-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wenderoth (2004/0029754) in view of Wenderoth et al (2003/0164470).

11. Wenderoth et al '754 is relied upon as set forth above. Specifically, '754 is silent with respect to the inclusion of carboxamides and sulfonamides in coolant compositions.

12. Wenderoth '470 teach antifreeze concentrates based on aqueous compositions (0098) comprise sulfonamides and carboxamides as corrosion inhibitors in antifreeze compositions.

13. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to include the carboxamides or sulfonamides of '470 to the '754 invention because '754 includes and invites the inclusion of corrosion inhibitors in said coolant compositions for automobiles (0032) and '470 teach that carboxamides and sulfonamides are used for the inhibition of corrosion in radiator antifreezes. Therefore, in the absence of criticality to the contrary, one of ordinary skill in the art would have been motivated to include the inhibitors to further aid in the inhibition of corrosion in an added or cumulative manner.
